NORFOLK SOCIETY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORNOLK, VA., June 18.—The marriage of Miss Julia M. Ashburn, daughter of Mr. A. II. Ashburn, to Mr. John Andrew Oates, was celebrated at Purk Avenue Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. J. J. Hall, performed the ceremony. There was a large assemblage of friends of the bridal couple and members of the respective famine. The decorations, which consisted of palms and fern, were banked about the chancel and choir and across the rear of the church on either side, and were also placed at the ends of the aisles, the effect being extremely pretty and artistic. The bride was preceded in the march to the altar by the ushers, who formed on either side of the chancel, and by the matron of honor, her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. P. Ashburn. The latter wore a light blue crepe dechine and tan net made over blue silk, hand-painted panel roses, and carried a large bouquet of La France roses. The brice wore a champagne crepe de chine, with picture hat and carried Bride roses.

MONTEREX, VA. June 18.—The extension of the Greenprier River Railroad to Bartow, on the east bank of the river, brings a depot within eight miles of the Highland county line, and reduces the distance for Monterey merchants to 25 miles. The first regular passenger train ran into the new town on Monday. The Staunton and Parkersburg turnplke has been greatly improved, and the guarantee of a new bridge over the Greenbrier river. Bartow will certainly become the freight depot for the greater part of this county. In fact, many predict that this new town has a "future," and will soon be an industrial center. The chief factor in good bread is the Yeast Cake. The Fulton Yeast Cake stands in a class by itself-excelled by none. It is an absolutely pure vegetable product, made in round cakes, from the purest water-ground Virginia cornmeal, hops, sugar and potatoes. The cakes are perfectly dry and will keep for several months without losing its strength.

It is Nutritious, Economical and Healthful.

and for Making Light, Sweet, Wholesome Bread it Has No Equal.

It is recommended and endorsed by eminent physicians and the best cooks and will keep in any climate for three months without losing its strength. A veteran Yeast maker, who has spent years in the business and knows the Dry Yeast Cake business from A to Z, has the following to say about the Fulton Yeast Cake, after comparing it with a number of others: "It's all right; as good as any."
